Dear Mr Albert Pang,

Re: Letter of Commendation

I and my family wish to thank you for your tireless efficient effort in helping us to manage my PR Application professionally throughout the whole process.

I and my family must admit that it is a job well managed and done professionally by you, a very qualified migration agent! You have always given to us your personal service whenever we need them and you are always by our side in time of our needs!

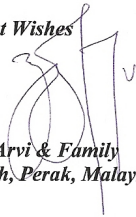

I and my family shall always remember your efficient service and shall always be glad and willing to recommend you to any people who wish to apply for an Australian PR in time to come.

Wish you the very best in your business and I and my family strongly do believe that your constant efficient qualified service record which you have always maintain will attract many people to seek your service in time to come by.

A Big Thank You!

Best Wishes
